

NO CONDEMNATION IN CHRIST

Romans 8:1 – There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Apostle Paul had the revelation which God gave him. God chose him and he was the chief of sinners. He could have walked around CONDEMNED because he was a murderer, a publican and chief publican. But God chose him before the foundation of the world to let you know and to let him write, that there is therefore NOW no condemnation to those that are in Christ Jesus.

He had walked under condemnation. He had been under the Law. God gave him revelation. He showed him it is by grace least any man should boast. It wasn't because of the Law it was by grace that God chose him before the foundation of the world. It was by grace that God showed him the truth that the eyes of your understanding could be enlightened, that you would know the hope of your calling. It was because of his revelation that God gave him when He called him apart from the world, when He separated him from those sins that so easily beset him, that he no longer was puffed up and proud. He had to humble him. God had to send him into the wilderness for 3 years to make sure that his heart was right. Don't you know that he suffered many things because of God? But yet he knew the truth and the truth set him free. That is why God has given you such revelation. The Spirit of the living God is upon you to give you revelation, because God has anointed you to go into the highways and byways and tell them now is the time God's people need to get from under the law and understand what grace is. That is God's unmerited favor. You can come boldly anytime into the throne room.

If you confess your sins God is willing and just to forgive you from all unrighteousness. His Son paid the ultimate price. He gave his life for you. He experienced separation from God, which is why when He was on the cross that He said "My God, My God, why have you deserted me, why have you left me?"

And you yourself know when you are in sin, God has to leave you. Not because He wants to leave you, it's because He will not be able to take control of your life. The law of sin and death takes over and God cannot pull you back until you confess your sins, says the Spirit of God.

So today, consider your ways. It's time says the Spirit of God, that My people which are called by My name humble themselves and pray and turn. You are without excuse O man because if today was the last day of your life, would you be right? Would your heart be right? Would you be ready to meet me says the Spirit of God? He has called you, He has chosen you, and He has anointed you. Understand that He is a God of mercy and that He is a God of love and He loves you. He loves you! He has poured out His blood as an offering for you to let you know that if He is for you, who can be against you?

So, don't allow condemnation to come upon you. There is NOW therefore NO condemnation to those that are in Christ Jesus. Don't allow those weak and beggarly elements; don't allow your unrenewed mind to tell you who you are not, for God said you shall rule and reign in this life as Kings and priests. (Romans 5:17).

God has called you, He has chosen you and He has equipped you. Choose you this day whom you will serve says the Spirit of the Living God.
