

DECLARING THE WORD OF GOD

It is my word, the revealed word, the written word, which I have given you, that will cause you to flourish. If you spend time in my word, you spend time in my presence. It is my spoken word, the word that I speak. The word is near you, the Word is in your mouth.

When you open up your mouth and begin to allow me to be free, to be released from your spirit, and begin to declare my word over your circumstances and situations they will change. I have showed you in the word that the things that are not, are used to bring to naught the things that are. You cannot see them. If you are sick in your body, yes you do not deny it, but you begin to use the word to bring that illness to nothing. You reduce it to nothing when you begin to declare my word over it.

If you lack, says the Spirit of God, in your resources, in your finances, you don't look at your bank account and say I don't have any money and deny that I am God. You say my bank balance is zero but my God said he would supply all my needs according to his riches in glory. Have I not promised you that as you gave I would give unto you?

Did I not tell you that if you sow you would reap? If you sow you reap. You cannot plant and not expect a harvest says the Spirit of God.

So it is as you begin to declare my word over your life. As you begin to expect those to come into the kingdom, you don't look at the church and say this church has no people, it is nothing. You begin to say I thank you lord for producing, for bringing forth. I thank you for sending me forth into the harvest to bring those that are barren, without the word, that are poor in spirit to come into my place of worship.

You begin to declare it. Yes it looks foolish when you begin to speak life to dead things, but you know the power that is in you and when you release that power that is within you, you begin to cause things to reproduce says the Spirit of God. So I bring you here to teach you, to empower you, to encourage you, to build you up, to exalt you. So why would you go out with your head bowed down saying you cannot do it. Why do you go out belittling or criticizing says the spirit of God.

If you cannot take what I give you and build up, just stand there and let me use you and grow you, to the point that you will be full. Trust and know that my word is sure and settled. I will not go back on my word. I will not confuse you. I will not bring you into derision but I will cause you to stand in that place of assurance if you dare trust me, if you dare believe.

Why do you come every Sunday if you don't expect to receive anything? Why do you come in if you expect to go out and not produce says the Spirit of God? Why would you keep planting something that would not grow, does it make sense. Well I tell you this day says the Spirit of God. Do not continue doing the things that you have done and expect no production says the Spirit of God. Do not continue to enter into this place of worship and expect no growth. Why are you coming? Why are you coming?

Why do you waste your time? I would that you all would come to fullness says the Spirit of God. I want you to learn. I want you to grow. I want you to be edified. I WANT TO USE YOU IN THE KINGDOM. I WANT YOU TO BE MY MOUTHPIECE. I want you to be full and overflowing so that when somebody comes across your path or I send you across the path of someone, you don't look at them judgingly but I release you to speak life into them.

You don't look at them and see them as drug addicts or alcoholics. You see them as I see them, delivered, healed, saved, set free. Why do you belittle, why do you look down, why do you criticize. Can you not build them up? Can you not extend a hand and pull them up? Oh you cannot do it when you are weak in your own spirit says the Spirit of God. You have no hope when you are hopeless for yourself says the Spirit of God. So become full of hope. Allow me to empower you continually. My life is alive. It is working, it is active, it is full of power.

DECLARING THE WORD OF GOD

It's full of life. Allow my word to explode out of your mouth says the Spirit of God. I want you this week to expect something from me. I want you to look at something that you see HOPELESS and I want you to begin to declare over it. Whether it is in your own personal life or the life of someone you love or you know or just somebody that you see. I want you to begin to speak life over those dead circumstances.

I don't want you to go back into the past and pull up things. I want you to look at things realistically. Do you see someone that is poor in spirit? Do you see somebody that's struggling? Do you see somebody that's lost, says the Spirit of God? I want you to begin to declare over them. Do you see yourself as always in need, always begging, always looking for a handout? Well I have given you a HANDUP, says the Spirit of God. Begin to look at your own circumstance and declare over it.

Have I not given you the full measure of the word that you can use it? So my word is life and it is power. Begin to activate it in your own life. Trust and know that I am God. Will you dare try me this week says the Spirit of God? Oh taste and see that I am the living God says the Spirit of the Living God!
